

91.7 WVXU
NEWS

♥ Donate

Cincinnati Edition

Celebrating the history of Cincinnati's legendary gay bars

Published June 24, 2024 at 4:00 AM EDT

Jolene Almendarez / WVXU

Terry Bond and Carl Fox in 2021.

Some of Cincinnati's most iconic gay bars have come and gone. No more late nights belting out karaoke at Shirley's, tearing up the dance floor at The Dock, or simply enjoying a beer with old friends On

WVXU
Morning Edition

But these late-night haunts hold a place in the collective memory of their guests: That Cincinnati's LGBTQ establishments are home, even if the home you grew up in isn't always there for us.

On Cincinnati Edition, we celebrate the history of our city's legendary gay bars.

Guests:

- Randy Bridges, owner, On Broadway
- Carl Fox, founder, Crazy Fox Saloon
- Michael Chanak, gay rights activist

Ways to listen to this show:

- Tune in live at noon ET M-F. Call 513-419-7100 or email talk@wvxu.org to have your voice heard on today's topic.
- Catch the replay on 91.7 WVXU and 88.5 WMUB at 8 p.m. ET M-F.
- Listen on-demand. Audio for this segment will be uploaded to this page by 4 p.m. ET., or subscribe to our podcast.

Tags

Cincinnati Edition

Cincinnati Edition

LGBTQ

91.7
WVXU
NEWS

88.5
WMUB
NEWS

WVXU

Morning Edition